However, for a shareholder whose shares are not placed in the collective custody of KSEI (holder of shares with physical certificates), the interim dividends will be directly transferred to the bank account of the relevant shareholder.
3. The interim dividends to be paid to a shareholder with status as a Resident Taxpayer (Wajib Pajak Dalam Negeri) will not be subject to Income Tax withholding, whereas the interim dividends to be paid to a shareholder with Non-Resident Taxpayer status will be subject to Income Tax withholding in accordance with the tax law prevailing as of the Record Date.

The Income Tax obligation arising in connection with the dividends received by the shareholder with Resident Taxpayer status constitutes the responsibility of the relevant shareholder and must be fulfilled by the relevant shareholder on their own.

4. If the shareholder is a juristic person with Resident Taxpayer status and has not provided its Taxpayer Identification Number (Nomor Pokok Wajib Pajak, or NPWP) to the Securities Company and/or the Custodian Bank with which the shareholder has opened a securities account, such shareholder is required to provide its NPWP to KSEI through the Securities Company and/or the Custodian Bank with which the shareholder has opened a securities account, no later than June 18, 2026, 16:00 Western Indonesia Time.
5. A shareholder with Non-Resident Taxpayer status from a country with which the Republic of Indonesia has entered into a Double Taxation Agreement (DTA) or Tax Treaty may benefit from a lower rate of withholding tax (at the rate as agreed in the DTA), being less than the normal rate of 20% provided that such shareholder meets the requirements stipulated in Regulation of the Minister of Finance of the Republic of Indonesia No. 112 of 2025 dated December 30, 2025 concerning Procedures for the Implementation of Double Taxation Avoidance Agreements, including but not limited to filing with KSEI the Non-Resident Taxpayer's Certificate of Domicile (CoD) in the form of the original DGT Form, which has been duly and accurately completed and signed and certified by the competent officer in the country of the counterparty (if not available, such document may be substituted with the Certificate of Residence (CoR) in the English language) in accordance with the provisions laid down by KSEI. However, if during the current year, the Non-Resident Taxpayer has conducted a transaction and has provided a Taxpayer in Indonesia with the original DGT Form accompanied by the CoR, the CoD in the form of the DGT Form may be substituted with a soft copy of the Receipt for the CoD that has been registered on the e-CoD official website. If the shareholder fails to provide such document within the time frame stipulated by KSEI, then the interim dividends payable to such Non-Resident Taxpayer will be subject to Income Tax withholding under Article 26 of the Tax Law (PPh Pasal 26) at the maximum rate imposed by law, i.e 20%.
6. Under the tax laws and regulations currently in force, the dividends received by a Resident Individual Taxpayer (Wajib Pajak Orang Pribadi Dalam Negeri) are no longer subject to Income Tax withholding and can be treated as income that is not included as an Income Tax object as long as they are invested in the territory of the Unitary State of the Republic of Indonesia as regulated in Government Regulation No. 9 of 2021 and its amendments (PP9), Regulation of the Minister of Finance No. 18 of 2021 and its amendments (PMK18), as well as the implementing tax regulations; otherwise, the Resident Individual Taxpayer may also choose to be subjected to final Income Tax of 10% according to Article 17 paragraph (2c)* of the Law of the Republic of Indonesia No. 7 of 1983 concerning Income Tax as amended several times, last amended by Law of the Republic of Indonesia No. 7 of 2021 (Income Tax Law) without the obligation to invest the same in the territory of the Unitary State of the Republic of Indonesia.
If the Resident Individual Taxpayer chooses to treat the dividends as income that is not included as an Income Tax object but fails to comply with the investment requirement under the provisions and procedures stipulated in PP9 and PMK18, the relevant dividends will, notwithstanding the above, be subjected to final Income Tax of 10% according to Article 17 paragraph (2c)* of the Income Tax Law.
 Payment of the final Income Tax on the dividends as described above must be made by the relevant Resident Individual Taxpayer no later than the 15th (fifteenth) day of the month subsequent to the month of the Record Date.*
7. The Income Tax withholding will be made in accordance with the tax laws and regulations prevailing as of the Record Date. If a new tax law or regulation is later issued after the Income Tax withholding is made and the new tax law or regulation is retroactively applied to the Record Date, resulting in overwithholding, then the refund of the overwithheld tax will be claimed by the relevant shareholders affected by the new tax law or regulation through the tax refund mechanism under the prevailing tax laws or regulations (as of the date of this announcement, being Regulation of the Minister of Finance No. 81 of 2024).

10.
