

BCA Political Commitment

As citizens of the Republic of Indonesia, every BCA employee has the freedom to take part in social and / or political processes. In exercising this right, every employee is responsible to protect and does not interfere office facilities or other matters related to the identity of the Company, and to avoid misuse of their position and authority to influence other employees in exercising their political rights.

Any participation in this activity is on behalf of individuals and cannot represent the Company. Every statement, attitude and action that can reflect the position of the Company, must be approved by the Board of Directors. Expenditures in the form of donations on behalf of the Company, for social and / or political activities, must be approved by the Board of Directors.

Note:

In 2020, BCA did not make any contributions to and spending for political campaigns, political organizations, lobbyists or lobbying organizations, and trade associations and other groups whose role is to influence political campaigns or public policy and legislation.